

JNAL. THE ROLL OF HONOUR.

STOKE-UNDER-HAM.

THE LATE PRIVATE E. GILLMAN.—The relatives

of Private E. Gill-

man recently received official news from the War Office that he has been killed. Private Gillman was reported missing some weeks since, and it was feared that he had lost his life. Sincere regret is felt with his friends and relatives in their sad loss.

of the Town Council.—Mr. Matthews remarked that there was no reason for any excitement in this matter. He only thought that two councillors on the Staff Committee was not enough, but he did not suggest that the present members of the Committee had not done their duty.—The Chairman said that the remarks which had been made that evening were, no doubt, meant kindly, but he rather felt that Mr. Matthews had said...
