1st.

Z day. Fine and warm.

After a very intense bombardment, at 7.20.A.M. a large mine was exploded
under the HAWTHORN REDOUBT.
Practically no casualties were suffered while in Assembly trenches.

At 7.30 am. the attack was launched. The 11th Bde advanced in magnificent style in following order, from right to left:

1st East Lancashire Regt,
1st Rifle Brigade, 6th
Warwicks.

In second line 1st Hampshire
Regt, 1st Somerset L.Infy, 8th Warwicks. Battns advanced on a front of One Coy.

Leading Battns advanced in lines, 2nd line of Battns
in lines of Sections.

The Battn advanced in four lines.

1st line 2 Platoons A Coy on

The 10th & 12th Bdes were behind 11th Bde. The advance was carried out excellently to start with, and a severe barrage was not encountered.

Shortly after heavy rifle fire was opened & Machine guns from both flanks.

The 1st East Lancashire & 1st Hampshire Regts were unable
