

BRITISH SOLDIER
VISITING A COMRADE'S
GRAVE ON THE CLIFFS
NEAR CAPE HELLES

"...Gallipoli, where over 2000 men of the Dublin and Munster Fusiliers and of the Hampshire Regiment took part in the memorable landing on "V" beach, to be shot to pieces there, and later - such as had survived - were responsible for the storming, amid further terrible loss, of Sed-el-Bahr".

Twenty Years After - Ed E D Swinton

CAPE
HELLES
MEMORIAL